Perhaps baptized August 21, 1763, Exeter, New Hampshire, son of David and Hannah Connor, N. H. either July 3, 1801, or February 23, 1803

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION LIBRARY

By
Alice Lucinda Priest
Brookline, Massachusetts
1932

Lieutenant Moses Connor, of Hopkinton and Henniker, New Hampshire
Perhaps baptized August 21, 1743, Exeter, N. H., son of David Connor.
Died Henniker, N. H. either July 3, 1831 or February 28, 1819.
Married about 1770 in N. H. Sarah[5] Hadley (Samuel,[4] George,[3] Samuel,[2] George[1]).

Samuel[4] Hadley of Amesbury & Haverhill, Mass.; and Plaistow & Hopkinton, N. H.
born, February 24, 1714/5, Amesbury, Mass.
died, after January 29, 1793 in or near Hopkinton, N. H.
mar. February 5, 1735/6, Haverhill, Mass.
Sarah Whittaker of Haverhill, Mass., probably dau. of William, Jr.
born, probably November 10, 1710, Haverhill, Mass.
died, before January 29, 1793, probably in Plaistow, N. H.
Children, baptized Haverhill, Mass., births recorded Plaistow, N. H.:
Abel[5] b. August 13, 1737; d. before January 29, 1793
Amos[5] b. October 12, 1739; d. about August 1, 1793, Dunbarton, N. H.
Simeon[5] b. February 27, 1742; d. after January 29, 1793
Ezekiel[5] b. June 8, 1743; d. 1793, Hopkinton, N. H., will made Jan. 29, probated April 16,
Sarah[5] b. June 8, 1746; d. after January 29, 1793; m. Lieut. Moses Connor

May 16, 1766 (vol. 5, p. 97, Nashua, N. H.), the above Samuel[4] Hadley, then of Plaistow, N. H., bought 35 acres of land in Hopkinton, N. H.; and March 26, 1760 he , still of Plaistow, deeded part of it to his youngest son, Ezekiel,[5] then already of Hopkinton, where he apparently remained for the rest of his life. By March 21, 1774, Samuel[4] Hadley, Ezekiel's father, was also a resident of Hopkinton. And at that time Lieut. Moses Connor was also living there, and his two oldest children were born there; and his brother David had lived there.

Ezekiel[5] Hadley was alone at the time of the 1790 census, and perhaps his first marriage was the only one there is any known record of - that of September 4, 1793, in Henniker, N. H., where his brother-in-law, Lieut. Moses Connor, was then living - to Eleanor Currier. Less than five months after this marriage - on January 29, 1793 - Ezekiel Hadley made his will, and that will was probated April 16, 1793. No children were named or suggested in the will; most of the property was left to the wife, who was to pay bequests left to Ezekiel's fathers, to the three children of his deceased eldest brother, Abel; to his brother Amos; to his brother Simeon (all in the order of their ages); and last to his sister Sarah. "I give and bequeath unto my sister Sarah Connor the wife of Lieut. Moses Connor thirty shillings to be paid by my executor within one year after my decease." (Name was left to each of his brothers.) (See my Hadley Records, typed like these.)

The sole original contribution to this record was to give the proof of the marriage of Sarah[5] Hadley to Lieut. Moses Connor.

What led to the belief that the 1850 Henniker, N. H., History has confused the names of Lieut. Moses Connor with that of his son Moses. And that when it states that Mary was the name of the wife of the elder Moses Connor, and by implication the mother of his children, that it is probably wrong in the least respect at least. Certainly that History does not know about the marriage of the elder Moses Connor to Sarah Hadley by Jan. 29, 1793. If Sarah Hadley was the first wife, as I believe she was, she may have died not long after 1793, and Lieut. Moses Connor have mar. (2) Mary - , and then she have died March 28, 1847, Henniker, the date that the Henniker History gives for the death of Mary, wife of the elder Moses Connor. So the History may unwittingly have blundered in giving the name Mary instead of Sarah.

The Henniker History gives the date of death of the elder Moses Connor as July 3, 1831; and names of his son Moses (born October 25, 1776, in Hopkinton); "(5b) Lieut. Moses Connor was a prominent man in the town for many years. There is but little record of his family. He died Feb. 28, 1819, [illegible]

Child, born Exeter, N. H.:
Jason, b. December 6, 1707;

George[3] Conner (John[2] Cornelius[1]), b. Dec. 1683; m. Feb. 25, 1706/6, Martha Dow. The church record, Salisbury and Hampton Monthly Meeting of Friends, gives the above marriage, as follows: George Conner (I think they spelling, was early though it may have been Connors the fashion of spelling children, including with Conner), late of Salisbury, now of [illegible], son of John, deceased, and Elizabeth to Martha Dow, daughter of John and Hannah Dow of Hampton. Edw. and Martha must have moved to Kensington, N. H., for the record of their family's[4] marriages from D. 1705, Hampton Town, Survey Indexes, daughter of George, of Kensington, N. H., and of Martha, married to Jonathan Dudley, son of Benjamin, of Norfolk, Maine, and Elizabeth. Very likely there are the Hampshire records of the births of children of George[3] and Martha (Dow) Conner.
